14 -.OUTCOMES & OBJECTIVES ACHIEVED - This Quiz helped students identify what they know and what they don't know. The students then have a better idea of how well they are grasping the material, hopefully motivating them to study more and helping them allocate their study time effectively by focusing on the information that still needs more practice.

15 -OBSERVATIONS & SHORTCOMINGS – The participation in online Quiz showed that the students really like these platforms in which they can take part hassle free. Its low costing , time saving & more accurate in data wise however some students are not technology friendly so on this issue we have to work & organize more activities.

16 16. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FUTURE IMPROVEMENTS - The future of quizzing lies in our desire to transform learning for our students. While the tools are in abundance, the focus needs to be on the content. Quizzing is not just about GK, but about connecting the dots, reading between the lines and arriving at a conclusion. It needs to focus on logical reasoning.

REPORT ON LECTURE OF CASE ANALYSIS

A Lecture on case analysis had been organized by IPEM LAW ACADEMY on 5th April 2016 at 2.00 to 3.00 in Law Campus. This kind of activities enhance the professional skills of Law Student. Being a Law Student it is foremost learning process to analysis the Case of Court. The Lecture was attended by the Students of BALL.B II, IV, VII, & VIII Semester. The process of case analysis had been discussed in the Lecture by Faculty members. Lecture was started through the introductory part.

1. BEGIN BY INTRODUCING THE CASE

State its name, which court it in which it was decided and its legal significance, what did it change? Perhaps offer some context, such as prior law it affected. Outline whether you think the case was indeed correctly decided or not – and list your reasons. Keep brief. A good introduction is succinct, compelling and provides a 'bird's eye view' of your whole argument.

2. OUTLINE THE KEY FACTS

Don't forget to include any contradictory facts or evidence that arose in the judgment. The purpose of this section is to provide a broad-sweep background to your analysis, so stick to relevant facts and again, stay brief. Case notes are often quite short, and it is in your analysis that you will score well. as this demonstrates your ability to argue in a legal context.

3. IDENTIFY THE RATIO

This involves identifying the decisions reached by each judge, noting any dissents. This will be important if you disagree with the outcome of the case.

4. ANALYSE THE DECISION(S)

If there were several different judgments, as if often the case, it might be convenient to combine identifying each judgment with analysis of the judgment as you go.

Analysis is often where you encounter the most difficulty. Remember – analyze, don't describe. Consider the decision in light of existing law – does it contradict prior decisions? Does it seem logical to you? Does it seem consistent? If the decision departed from prior cases, was this appropriate? Often judgments will depart from prior law, specifically to keep up with the changing values of an evolving society – for 'policy' reasons. Or a judgment may simply reflect the prejudice and hysteria of its time. Show you are aware of this.

5. WHAT WOULD YOU DECIDE?

Having evaluated and analyzed the case, would you agree with the majority or dissent? Would you agree/disagree but for different reasons to those of the judges? Explain why. Refer to past cases, refer to international law, refer to second reading speeches (which are a good way to grasp the intentions behind the creation of legislation) to explain why you believe your approach might be more appropriate, or achieve greater justice. Be original. Be outrageous. Demonstrate that your ability for deep thinking and analysis.

6. CONCLUSION.

These are the important points which are necessarily to be followed during the analysis of a case. During the Lecture four cases had been discussed. As they are-

1. CARBOLIC SMOKE COMPANY CASE – CONTRACT LAW
2. RYLANDS VS. FLECTURE CASE- LAW OF TORT
3. KESHVANAND BHARTI CASE- CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
4. GOLKNATH CASE - CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Most of the faculty members were present during the lecture.
