

REPORT ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

It has been evident that the most important resource that any institution has its faculty members who teach knowledge and skills to students. Managing multiple roles and new responsibilities is a challenge in all aspects. Every organization is a mixer of all types of people, with all types of personalities, quirks, goals and challenges, so for everyone to get along wonderfully, it takes effort and that what the Work Harmony is all about. To maintain the harmony within self is important for goal attainment of the Institute, in view of this 5 Days Faculty Development Programme was organized from 28th Dec to 1st Jan 2020.

The major objective and focus of this FDP was on encouraging employees to manage or arrange the different parts of their life in a way that is in tune with their individual goals. The session was taken up by Mr. Shashank Chaudhary. He explained the harmony and its impact on individual's Self, on its Family and on its immediate surroundings & Nature.

The interdependency of all the factors was clearly explained and very well understandable by the audience present there. The audience also shared experience & decided to follow this harmonious bonding of their self with their family and nature.
